____ 1 Customer warrants that it is the registered owner and or has been authorized by the legal owner to act as agent for the registered owner and has the authority to enter into this agreement on behalf of the owner.

____ 2 By shipper's signature and/or agents signature. Car Movers U.S.A. (CMUSA) its agents and the motor carrier transporting the vehicle and their employees, jointly and separately are authorized to operate and transport the vehicle from point of origin to the destination specified in the Bill of Lading.

____ 3 CMUSA and/or their Agents shall not be liable for the following:

Damage caused by leaking fluids, battery acids, cooling system anti-freeze fluids, industrial fallout, or any other damaged caused by Acts of God.

Damage which is undetectable due to the vehicles dirty condition at the time of pick-up or glass damage caused by debris from road use or during transportation.

Mechanical malfunctions, exhaust assembly, frame alignment, tire damage, suspension, or running of engines, Auto Rental Accruals, damage resulting from overloading vehicles, - damages to vehicles caused due to: a) Vehicles cannot be driven on or off transporter under its own power, b) Vehicles that are defective or have insufficient brakes, parking brake or parking gear.

____ 4 After shipper makes the vehicle available to CMUSA or its agents. CMUSA and it's agents will use their best efforts to deliver the vehicle within eight (8) to ten (10) business days, however due to unforeseeable factors that could result in delays. CMUSA and it's agents cannot guarantee the date and/or time of delivery.

____ 5 Shipper shall prepare the vehicle for transport by removing or securing any items that extend above or out from the standard body dimension of the vehicle (i.e. antennas, fender guards, etc), all batteries, loose parts, low hanging spoilers, etc.

____ 6 The shipper agrees to properly disclose any damage the vehicle may have before it being loaded on the transporter/carrier and while the vehicle is being delivered. Shipper will acknowledge the current condition of the vehicle by signing the Bill of Lading along with the driver of the transporter/carrier. Upon delivery, Shipper and Driver will re-inspect the vehicle and sign the Bill of Lading acknowledging receipt of vehicle. If any claim should arise as a result of transportation, other than noted on the Bill of Lading at the time the vehicle was loaded at its origin. Shipper has fifteen (15) days to file a claim and must be accompanied by two (2) written estimates of repair and photographs of claimed damages.

____ 7 Shipper agrees to pay the carrier the balance of delivery charges unless the order has been prepaid (proof must be shown) upon delivery of vehicle in cash, cashiers check or money order.

____ 8 Shipper agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CMUSA and it's agents harmless for any costs expenses, damages, losses and claims caused by the shipper's breach under this agreement.

The terms and conditions described herein are standard terms and conditions used in conjunction with auto transport. The actual carrier may have their own terms and conditions that may vary from those above.
